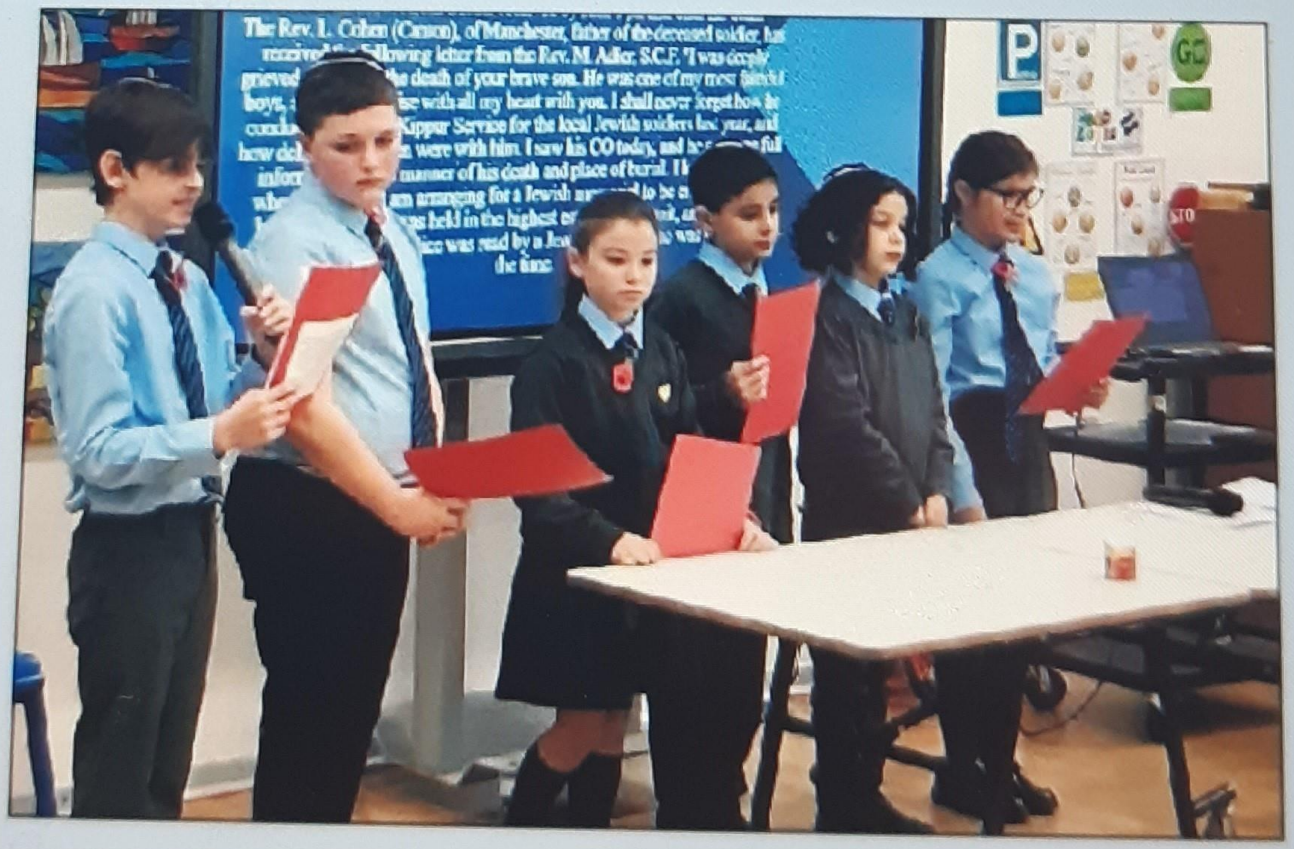
VJM

IN MEMORY: Rodney Ross, of the We Were There Too organisation, visited King David Primary School to lead a Remembrance Day assembly.

Year Six pupils lit a memorial candle and read out names of Jewish soldiers from the Cheetham Hill area who had died in battle.


A letter sent home from a soldier was also read out.