

LEARNING: Historian Paula Kitching was at King David Primary School on Wednesday afternoon. She spoke to Year Five pupils about the We Were There Too project, which aims to highlight the contribution made by Jews in the British armed forces during the First World War. Ms Kitching's new book Britain's Jews in the First World War (Amberley, £14.99), will be published next week

■ War heroes became part of UK history: Page 5