

We will remember

St Theresa's class heard the story of the Canadian Jew; Harry Jassby, and how he lied about his age in order to come to England and fight as a pilot in WW1.

Harry proved to be such a good pilot that the RAF decided not to allow him to fight but instead ordered him to train the other young men to fly. Harry survived the war but in an unfortunate turn of events, his aeroplane crashed into St Peter's Churchyard during a celebratory fly-by.

The law at that time was the fallen soldier should be buried where he lay, so the Jewish Jassby was buried in the Church of England St Peter's.

The resident vicar was a forward thinking Christian and allowed Jewish symbols to be displayed on the headstone. He also invited a local Rabbi to come and officiate with him at the funeral. This was the first ever multi-faith project.

In 1985 the parishioners of St Peter's raised sufficient funds to pay for Harry's family to come to England and visit his grave.

We also looked at some books made by Jewish children during WW1 which expressed their thoughts and feelings of the time.

Inspired by their work we have used a variety of mediums to express our feeling of war.

We would like to think that the Jewish children of 1917 would enjoy looking at our work as much as we enjoyed theirs.

My Dream

When I am older I want the world to be free from war. I wish the world will be couful with flowers trees and plants.

I whant schools that will be safe and beautiful houses. I want to live with all my friends. We will go to the beach every day and have fun with all are kids.

Write now we are scared that a bomb will fall on our hoase or school. We whant to get out every day but war is distracting us. I am going to help change the world and make a better place.

From Lucy ~~10/10/10~~ 10/10/10

Dear Diary,

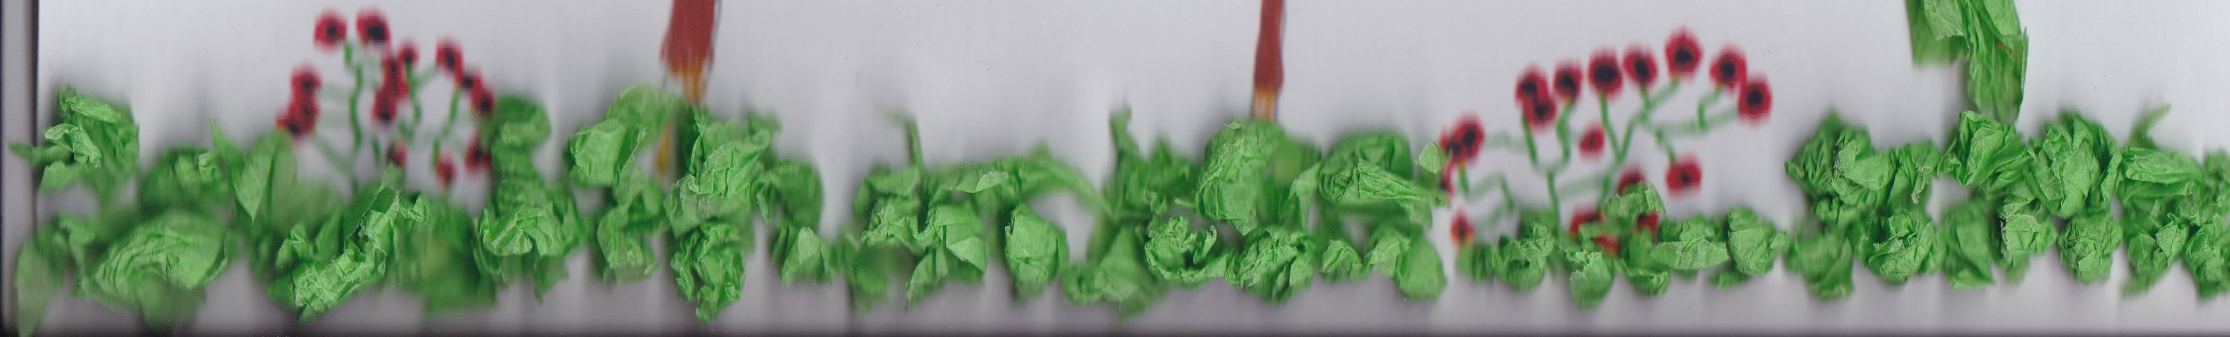

last night I was in my bed and I heard the bombs again first it gave me a shock but then I realized what it was but they went on for ages actually all night it went on so I belly got any sleep at all even though I staying home all week so I could sleep all day but there probably be some in the day. And my neigbs got a boom and it hit there house and they were there sleep but now he is died but we was upset but little bit happy it didn't hit us but know they are think of sending me off to a different county so I can live my life and hopefully don't die untill I am older. But I really don't want to leave my family. I want to stay with them but I know I will have to leave soon so I am going to spent all of my time with them. I just pray that it stops soon.

Dear Lord,

I pray for all the families that need help and the children how lost there prents that lost there child in the wars. and I hope for the best for the people who are in the wars now, and the people how aren't in the wars but live next to them and getting bombed

Amen

Dance beneath the stars, as you drink in the night.

Let the thunder overtake you, as lightning gills the sky.

Feel the force of nature, penetrate your skin.

Spin with the world

is the war ended

If the war ended there would be poppies and such a great place,

kids could go out and have fun and play.

so for all I pray
is no more
war!

World Wars

Fighting, gory will it ever ever end, Shouting, sirens will it ever ever end Gunshots, deaths, bombing Germans think our country is very invulnerable,

I wish this could end or I wish I never experienced this,

I hate this my home is destroyed
I have been sent away,

My family are so vulnerable to me I can't lose them so just let this all
end,

I want this to end I'm gone away I really hope this is a nightmare I am very intimidated.

My Prayer

Dear Lord,

Please help all the families with lost with lost men or poor family members. Please make sure all the families and all of the other people who have had injured family members to get happy and stay happy. Please try to make sure there is not going to be another war. I know it makes others not very happy, it makes them sad and upset.

Amen
